NANCY FEHR
SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE
Inducted April 21, 2006

Nancy was inducted into the USBC Hall of Fame on April 21, 2006 in Orlando, Florida. She was the first woman recognized for Superior Performance and the third woman from Cincinnati to receive such honors.

Nancy Fehr is a common name among the bowlers from Cincinnati primarily because of her achievements. There are too many to mention but some of the highlights include three WIBC tournament titles including 1989 all-events, and doubles titles in 1992 and 2001 and nine other WIBC tournament top 10 finishes. Nancy also has several state achievements as well. Nancy won two titles in 1977, singles & all-events plus rolled the tournament high series. She had doubles titles in 1980 & 2002 and several team actual titles with teams members from across the state. Locally Nancy holds several scratch titles, three all events, 1979, 1992, 1994, two doubles in 1979 & 1987 and singles in 1992.

Cincinnati records show Nancy has rolled at least four 300 games and two 800 series.
